Dear Charl,

We have many reasons to celebrate EDS' continuing progress. Your talent and innovative spirit exemplify who we are and what we do as a company. Your commitment to our clients' success is helping drive EDS' profitable growth. That's why your service milestone with the company holds special significance. We'd like to take this opportunity on your 30th anniversary at EDS to personally thank you for your contributions.

With your colleagues working tirelessly around the globe, you have reignited a passion for quality and service excellence that's a business differentiator for us. This differentiator has continued to make EDS stronger and more effective for our clients and investors as well as your colleagues.

You've helped transform EDS, positioning the company for market leadership. With your milestone, you now join a special group of veteran EDSers. Watching this group grow and recognizing its importance give us great pleasure.

Again, congratulations on your achievement. With your continued help, we can build on our momentum and propel EDS to new heights.

Sincerely,
